Item 4.01      Changes in Registrant's Certifying Accountant.

On January 29, 2007, Regal One Corporation (the "Company") dismissed George Brenner as its principal independent accountant do to health reasons. George Brenner's report on the Company's financial statements for the past two years did not contain an adverse opinion or disclaimer of opinion, nor was it modified as to uncertainty, audit scope or accounting principles. There were no disagreements with George Brenner on any matter of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure, or auditing scope or procedure, which, if not resolved to the satisfaction of George Brenner, would have caused it to make reference to the subject matter of the disagreement(s) in connection with its report.

The Company has provided George Brenner with a copy of the disclosures it is making in response to this Item 4.01 prior to the day that this Current Report on Form 8-K is being filed with the SEC. The Company requested that George Brenner furnish a letter addressed to the SEC stating whether it agrees with the statements made by the Company in response to this Item 4.01 and, if not, stating the respects in which it does not agree. A copy of such a letter provided by George Brenner is filed as Exhibit 16.1 to this Current Report.

On January 29, 2007, the Company retained De Joya Griffith & Company, LLC to serve as its principal independent accountant. The Company's board of directors approved the decision to dismiss George Brenner as the Company's principal independent accountant and to retain De Joya Griffith & Company, LLC to serve as the Company's principal independent accountant.
